

Self-test: Classes and Objects

Create a class `temperature`. It internally stores a temperature in Kelvin. The class has a dunder method `__str__` and two instance methods that return the number of degrees in Celsius and in Kelvin.